CASE NUMBER: 01:22crim419-01 (LTS)

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your probation, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of the time you were sentenced, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. DEFENDANT: TABITHA REICHERT
CASE NUMBER: 01:22crim419-01 (LTS)

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Defendant must comply with the conditions of home detention for a period of 12 months. During this time, defendant must remain at defendant's place of residence except for employment; education; religious services; medical, substance use disorder, or mental health treatment; child care; or other activities approved by the Probation Officer. At the direction of the Probation Officer, defendant must wear an electronic monitoring device and follow the electronic monitoring procedures specified by the Probation Officer. Home detention shall commence on a date to be determined by the Probation Officer. Defendant must pay the costs of home detention on a self payment or co-payment basis as directed by the Probation Officer.

Defendant must stay at least 100 yards away from the victims in this case, and the victims' friends and family members; the defendant must stay at least 100 yards away from the home, school, business, and place of employment of the victims, and the victims' friends and family members; the defendant must refrain from having any communication or any other contact, directly or through any other person, by mail, telephone, email, voicemail, social media, or any other means with the victims, and the victims' friends and family members; and the defendant must refrain from harassing, intimidating, threatening, or otherwise interfering with the victims, and the victims' friends and family members.

Defendant must immediately take down any remaining social media postings the defendant has created or caused to be created regarding the victim or any friend or relative of the victim.

Defendant must participate in an outpatient treatment program approved by the U.S. Probation Office, which program may include testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to using drugs or alcohol. Defendant must contribute to the costs of services rendered (co-payment), in an amount determined by the Probation Officer, based on ability to pay or availability of third-party payment. The Court authorizes the release of available drug treatment evaluations and reports, including the presentence investigation report, to the substance abuse treatment provider, as directed by the Probation Officer.

Defendant must participate in a mental health program approved by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant must continue to take any prescribed medications unless otherwise instructed by the health care provider. Defendant will be required to contribute to the costs of services rendered (co-payment), in an amount determined by the Probation Officer, based on ability to pay or availability of third-party payment. The Court authorizes the release of available psychological and psychiatric evaluations and reports, including the presentence investigation report, to the health care provider.

Defendant must permit the U.S. Probation Office to install any application or software that allows it to survey and/or monitor all activity on any computer(s), automated service(s), or connected devices that the defendant will use during the term of probation and that can access the internet (collectively, the "Devices"), and the U.S. Probation Office is authorized to install such applications or software. Tampering with or circumventing the U.S. Probation Office's monitoring capabilities is prohibited. To ensure compliance with the computer monitoring condition, the defendant must allow the Probation Officer to conduct initial and periodic unannounced examinations of any Device(s) that are subject to monitoring. Defendant must notify any other people who use the Device(s) that it is subject to examination pursuant to this condition. Defendant must provide the U.S. Probation Office advance notification of planned use of any Device(s), and must not use any Device(s) without approval until compatibility (i.e., software, operating system, email, web-browser) is determined and installation is completed. Applications for the defendant's Device(s) shall be approved by the U.S. Probation Office once the Probation Office ensures compatibility with the surveillance/monitoring application or software. Websites, chatrooms, messaging, and social networking sites shall be accessed via the Device(s) web browser unless otherwise authorized. Defendant must not create or access any internet service provider account or other online service using someone else's account, name, designation or alias. Defendant must not utilize any peer-to-peer and/or file sharing applications without the prior approval of Probation Officer. The use of any Device(s) in the course of employment will be subject to monitoring or restriction as permitted by the employer.

Defendant must submit defendant's person, and any property, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication, data storage devices, cloud storage or media, and effects to a search by any United States Probation Officer, and if needed, with the assistance of any law enforcement. The search must be conducted when there is reasonable suspicion concerning violation of a condition of probation or unlawful conduct by the defendant being supervised. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of probation. Defendant must inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Any search shall be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.

Defendant is to be supervised by the district of residence.
